It is advisable to limit discussion (if any) of the subject and to defer any extensive deliberation to a later meeting for which more specific notice can be given. No formal action may be taken on a subject raised in the public comment period, unless that subject is also identified in the meeting notice.

Reasonable rules governing the conduct of a period of public comment, for County Board or its subunits, includes the following:

A. A public comment period is limited to no more than thirty (30) minutes. The maximum time allotted to each speaker is three (3) minutes. A speaker may not yield or reserve their time to another speaker.

- E. A speaker must get recognition from the chairperson before speaking, state their name, and address remarks to the chair.
- F. To prevent cumulative and repetitive comments, the chairperson may, in her or his discretion, provide for the designation of spokespersons for groups of persons supporting or opposing the same positions.
- G. Chairperson may provide for the maintenance of order and decorum in the conduct of the public comment period.
 - 1. Maintaining order includes keeping speakers to their allotted time, controlling others from interrupting the speaker who has the floor, and preventing speakers from otherwise disrupting the meeting (e.g., clapping or shouting).
 - 2. Maintaining decorum includes encouraging speakers to be courteous and respectful. The use of obscene, profane language or gestures will not be tolerated.

If order and decorum is not maintained, the chairperson may terminate a period of public comment.

- H. The purpose of the public comment period is to give persons an opportunity to inform the governing body about their views. The meeting itself belongs to the governing body. The public does not participate in decision-making. Instead, it provides input to the governing body, which takes the input into consideration in making its decisions.

28. Adjourn or Recess
